LET'S STOP THE WAR

BEACON

DEDICATION

Some teachers lecture from books, some talk to the wall, some to their shoes, and some to a select few. You have given to each student the right of individuality. You have made it possible for each student to see with his own insight and to share this insight with other members of his class. You take all points of view into consideration so we can feel and see and not merely hear, making thinking an art.

You are not content only to work in the classroom, but you take your enthusiasm outside. For it was you who gave most freely of your time and energy in the Blood for Peace drive. It was you who worked with and guided the Viet Nam Peace Movement at Emerson, and sat with us on October 15, not as a teacher, but as a friend.

To a person who understands that the ideas formed in a classroom are only important if they can be carried on outside that classroom; to a person who has helped to bring many questions before this institution and who has brought them with such an excitement and a belief in her convictions that they have caused others to move forward; to a person who understands that education is not just an isolated hour spent in a classroom; to a person who knows that listening is not merely the silence that precedes speech, but the most important ingredient of a teacher and a human being; to you, Miss Irene McInnis, we dedicate this yearbook.

"I am me
I am not someone else, someone else is someone else
I am me
They can dream, they can play
But they cannot take away
What is me
Not him, not her, not thee
No siree, I am me
They can scheme they can brey
They can wear their hats all day
Still ... I'm ... me
No hats, no lies, no sham
For I am what I am
I ... am ... me."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

- I, Stephanie Axelrod, do hereby leave the Science Department at Suffolk University; to my roommate, Jenifer Emely, eternal strength and our own sorority, Kappa Flappa; to the cast of "Stephanie Shreck" the use of my name with much love and many parties and especially to Vinny, a big thank you; and last but not lost, friendships I can never replace.
- I, Camille Balzano, do hereby leave to Marlene Cicerone my grace, poise and finesse, so to speak. I also bequeath to her my Webster's Collegiate Dictionary to be carried on her person at all times when she knows she'll have to speak to someone.
- I, Andrea Berliner, do hereby leave fond memories of the "4 Muskateers," many many years of happiness and love my bloodsister will share with her pumpkin, an automatic car for Helen Wexler, my phone for Heidi's calls to Cleveland, and love to JAVA from his L.C.W.
- I, Susan Borks, do, with heartfelt memories, leave the great 6th floor rear of 100 Beacon and hope that those who follow will make as much of it as I did. I leave to Loreen a roomfull of mirrors, to Carla another year of sharing a bathroom, to Myra some spare time, and I leave 615 with a tearful sigh.
- I, Scott Boyd, do hereby leave to Eddy my weejuns in case of straightness returning, to Mark I leave the remembrance of Teddy R. and to Shawn, a female dare. To Peter D. I leave my condolences, and to Toosie I leave a year's supply of Rooti. To Kathy N. I leave my heart. Peace.
- I, Ruth Bretan, do hereby leave to Emerson College a tear, a smile, a patient, great, Grandma, a fabulous Mille, and a fantastic "Bocks."
- I, Sandi Cohen, hereby leave Emerson with a little anxiety, a lot of hope, special thanks to Dr. Luterman, memories of the Boston Bod and other typical Emerson people and events, and with a perpetual 2 a.m. "cranetion! or carnation?" to Karen Benjamin.
- I, Jeffrey Davis, do hereby leave triplets on the steps of 130 Beacon Street; "California" to Ronald Reagan; layouts for Marilyn; and $34.00 worth of overdue library books to Maris.
- I, Jenifer Emely, leave to Stephanie all of that "fancy stuff" because I've had enough, to Lavoie I leave UMMMM for ever and ever, and a sip of my coke; to Jane I leave a copy of the first Folio; and to Cathie Browner I leave all the Lucies in the world.
- I, H. Arthur Farnum, do hereby leave my interpretation of "the Grinch" to Peggy Bowe who has the appropriate personality, the title of "B.B." to Richard Mello who'll probably have trouble living up to it, and the proctorship of 206 Beacon St. to any buffoon who enjoys frustration, too little heat, too much heat, a constant series of cardiac arrests, and a million laughs.
- I, Marin Feins, do hereby leave expensive phone calls to N.Y.C. to whoever wants and can afford them; stationery, stamps and many warm memories to Joy; long hours of desk duty and many complaints to next year's proctors; wonderful memories of Junior Prom to other girls who become engaged that night; sleepless nights to Lois; and lots of luck to the girls from the Commonwealth Avenue dorm.
- I, Nancy Fisher, hereby leave phone calls to Storrs, love to my sisters of Kappa, and Jamie's reputation—for the "walls" of happiness.
- I, Amy L. Friedler, do hereby leave Sharon and Sharon and all the great times in 205. I also leave with Robert and couldn't be happier!
- I, Robert H. Friedler, do hereby leave Emerson with a lot more than an education. I leave with Amy.

- I, John J. Gilgun, hereby leave to A. Brooks Russell my #1 place in the old age pension collection line, and to Ed Schreiber a key to the S.G.A. office.
- I, Myra Greenberg, do hereby leave "quickie trips" to Mass. General, a "last day phone call" to Marlene Segal, "Aunt Marcia" to Marcia Kanoff, an Ethel Merman imitation to Sid Myer, a special understanding to Doris Ludwig, memorable dinners at the English Room to Sue Borks, a thank you to Kappa Gamma Chi, and finally with dreams of a certain lawyer . . .
- I, Robert N. Hillman, s'poz by and large that I hereby leave all my stale jokes in the hope that some lucky soul may pick them up, use them, and meet with more financial success than I have.
- I, Simon Hirsch, leave to Emerson one very dear "Weasel," a closetful of term papers, and my second home at the Clinic.
- I, Herb Holmes, do hereby leave the priceless memories of: the night Frank Napal was mistaken for a pile of coats, the duck with uncommonly long legs, the smoke-filled Chapter Rooms, breakfast in bed, a brief but fiery career as a campaign manager, the legalization of "Guyering," a weekend in Canada, the Shevlin "360," a midnight walk on the Cape, Kaluga, Adolph Alla, Dickie and Darwin, adventures in the summer surf with BZ and Bumpkins and many others too numerous to mention. To Emerson, "Thanks for the memory." Finally to a freckled-face kid who I hold so dear to me: You'll always have a front row seat reserved in my future.
- I, Marla J. Kaufman, leave Miss Gertrude Frigg to anyone tough enough to handle that bawdy broad—baby!
- I, Burt Kelman, do leave my well known space on the wall to my brother Mark—if he can sit there from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. every day as I did.
- I, Laurie Kozinn, leave a water balloon to Mrs. Powers; a mini-skirt contest; to Maris, a fish to help all your dreams come true; Miss Popularity title to anyone who wants it; Bonnie C. a dirty brillo pad; to Harriet a dirtball; Marcia K. one free Chinese dinner; love on the esplanade to anyone who is lucky enough to find it there; Gaylaur Kosker leaves to Bonmar a 10 year full, unbroken contract with Stanley Myron Handleman; molasses and taffey to the Kappa House; but I take with me fond memories, high aspirations, dreams and love.
- I, Marsha Lemerise, do hereby leave to Bonnie Cutler knowledge that she has great inside strength; to Debbie Disbrow a thank you for her help, her love, her friendship that brought me "up" when things were "down;" to Karen Karten a beautiful, blossoming sunflower, the symbol of happiness to come; to Peter, appreciation for helping me get through it all; to my sisters, harmony to guide you through the coming years; to Stephanie and her sorority of Kappa Flappa, much luck! I leave Emerson for Germany and Ron.
- We, Andrea Liftman and Edna Schneider, leave Miss MacPherson with a twinkle in her eye; I, Andi Liftman leave Edna Schneider a new brown shirt.
- I, David Maturi, do hereby leave Emerson with the best threatre it ever had.
- I Michael S. Messinger, leave to the Brotherhood of Phi Alpha Tau the best experiences of my life and thank them for making my senior year—as President—one I will always look back upon with a deep feeling of Brotherhood.
- I, Gael Metzker, do hereby leave my Sex Symbol title to anyone who can fill in; my Philadelphia (O's) to Miss Lewis; to Bonnie C., a dirty smelly sponge, to Marcia K., one cow; to Harriet, my treatise on "The use and abuse of the Voice;" a new pair of socks to Ham Comstock; to Joel and Marty, my orgasmic phone calls; a date with Joe Namath; to Maris, one of my special wishbones for the best forever; to the girls in the Kappa House, juice and syrup and the echoing of my voice through the halls; but I am leaving with the cherished memories of the best years of my life, in addition to hope and love.

1. Terry Meyerhoff, hereby leave an Eastern shuttle ticket to LaGuardia.
1. Sandra Marie Monte, do hereby leave our future cinematography my best wishes and my position as mascot.
1. Sharon Murphy, leave Sharon Kates and Ricky Sosny with a tear, and best wishes for their future together; to Marla Kaufman, three years of my friendship and advice; to Amy Friedler, my mirror; and to the girls of 6 front, some Toll House cookies!
1. William E. Pead, do hereby leave, at the culmination of four trying but necessary years, as fast as my diploma without platformate can propel me; leave "Greetings" to the poor clown who inherits the WERS record closet, and leave the best wishes I can spare to the newest AERho recruits in her neverending battle for excellence in a challenging industry.
1. Lynn Rabinow, leave a new revised edition of "The Garbage Hustlers" and a book of "101 more effective ways to Stage Manage."
1. Eileen Riess, do hereby leave to Emerson College one piece of uncrackable chewing gum, a completely shattered sound barrier, a large box of Goober peas, and three very "beautiful" people.
1. Tina Rudkin, do hereby leave my leotards, tights, ballet slippers and stretch exercises to Sue White and Eileen Rosen.
1. Edna Schneider, do hereby leave Andi Liftman a carbonated amethyst.
1. Lee Schofield, do hereby leave Paul to Rox Cohen; my floral centerpieces to the girls on 6 front; luck, love and thanks to Bill, Jim, Art, Dave, Tom and Bill; fond memories of the Rep. Assembly to all future S.G.A. vice presidents, and to Ed Schreiber, my final words of wisdom—"you'll get over it!"
1. Toni Sherman, leave four years of an unforgettably unique experience.
1. James T. Shevlin, do hereby leave my address in Ft. Lauderdale to Barry Pieper, my tongue to the Emerson Forensics Society, and my fraternity award to Dave Woolfson with the knowledge that he doesn't need it.
1. Konrad Sinhart, do hereby leave to Debbie Disbrow the strength to follow her high ideals of love and hope, and to Lambda Psi Pi, the Seal and the Moose.
1. Lawrence A. Slack, do hereby leave to Emerson College a copy of How to Succeed at Being a Law Enforcement Official Without Really Trying, three carbon copies of a probationary notice, and 15,000 gallons of "REU" Wail Oil. May they be used in Peace.
1. John F. Smith, do hereby leave WERS-FM program logs to the Class of 1970 Last Will and Testament.
1. Carole Stamler, leave Emerson College with great memories of the "Big Four;" Bali Hai for Heidi; love for my blood sister and the "Shawmut Bank;" and a pumpkin all year round.
1. Randy Steinberg, do hereby leave Emerson College with a greater insight to people and many sad, but funny experiences. I leave just as happy as I arrived, but with a smile and a tear. Perhaps the truest quote in existence to me is "Weeping may endureth for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." I leave Phase

One of my life and I look so very forward to Phase Two.

- I, Ann Steiner, leave to Mr. Ginn one hundred and one gutsy character elements, to Susie Sirotky a lesson in diaphragmatic breathing and a copy of Hamlet, to Kris Holtvedt happy memories of Bruce on the rug, Bobby on the couch and David Schaeffer, and to the Emerson College Chorus a new marshal for Commencement, 1970.
- I, Peter R. Steiner, do hereby leave to the Brothers of Rho Delta Omega an unparalleled football team; to the sisters of Kappa Gamma Chi some back street graffiti; to Mike Connor an ability to hustle chicks comparable to his wrestling; to Dave Maturi, a three hump camel; and finally to Coach Peckham, Thanks on behalf of all the Brothers for the greatest guidance over the years.
- I, Nancy Sugarman, do hereby leave Laurie, Room 420 at the Lenox, a stack of dated books to the library, memories from a Tufts party to Nancy, Laurie and Gael, a trip for Maris across the sea. I leave free consultations to Witch Leslie, and a trip to the Moon.
- I, Louise Thaw, do hereby leave gratefully, without looking back!
- I, Susan Turco, do hereby leave a certain few one "Dirty Turkey" for each and every Thanksgiving hereafter; the the sisters of Zeta Phi Eta a box of stationery and a blooming rose bush; and to the girls of 22 Commonwealth Avenue a couch, and many very precious confidences and memories between "us."
- I, Rosemary Valente, do hereby leave the Zeta La France Rose to Bobbi, Lily, Marlene, Betsy, Peggy, Jenny and all future Zetas; one tulip to Emerson and a bouquet of luck to the Oral Interpretation department; Lastly, a lifetime of the Grotesque period.
- I, Mark Werboff, do hereby leave my Brothers in Phi Alpha Tau a sincere feeling of gratitude, and all the love and strength they deserve; a final thanks to the sisters of Kappa Gamma Chi who made one "Sweetheart" feel very welcome and more confident of himself; the unforgettable escapades, and memories of Rosie, Ludwig, a surprise birthday party, Heidi, an election, Mondo's, the Editor of the Lemersonian, and of course one Turtle; but most important, a thank you to Charles Wesley Emerson, who created an environment where true friends and love can be found—if only one seeks them out.
- I, Ellen Werner, do hereby leave Emerson College with fond memories, especially of 190 Beacon and the whole gang of "unbelievable, indescribable, highly irreplaceable nuts;" to spend and enjoy my life with N.J.O.; and much special thanks to all the rebel rousers who taught me the ropes: Miss McGinnis, Myra, Dr. Coreia, Wendy, Joannie, Mrs. Harrington and Doris.
- I, Susan White, do hereby leave Emerson with none of the answers, but much better questions.
- I, Gale Ann Wolman, do hereby leave Helen Fein to David Maxwell; Myrt Wolman Specialty items to Maris Hoodkiss with liberal hours; Omar's conquests to Cordell, with luck for a successful year; my experiences in the Wreck Bar to Doris Ludwig; a smile for all the alumnae to the next V.P. of Kappa Gamma Chi; an open invitation to all ski meisters to meet next year in Maine (where?); to everyone who has consented to call me Gale Ann: the conviction that two names are better than one; tom my sisters in Kappa, love and appreciation for their confidence, and especially to Harriet Straka, a new beginning and a dream come true (because I know they do).
- I, Gary Woods, being of sound mind and body (I think) and being the great lover that I am, do hereby leave the entire female population of Boston to the strongest.

WINTER WEEKEND

Winter Weekend, 1968, consisted of three days of activity. On Friday, February sixteenth the Class of 1970 presented Richie Havens in concert at New England Life Hall. Following the concert a snow sculpture competition was held in front of school. Saturday afternoon there was a fashion show in the Mahogany Room where the ten semifinalists for Winter Weekend queen modeled the latest fashions from Capezio's. Saturday evening Susan DeMelle was chosen queen at the semi formal dance held at the Statler Hilton Hotel in Park Square. Music there was provided by The Richard Martin Orchestra and comedian Walter Childs entertained. On Sunday the traditional "Casino Day" was held at the Student Union.

JUNIOR PROM

The Class of 1970 presented their Junior Prom on May 3, 1969 at the Harvard Club. According to class advisor, Mr. Kenneth Crannell, "Their efforts to make this dinner-dance memorable far surpassed anything they have previously undertaken." Music was provided by Brass '68, a ten piece group with exciting sound. Comedy was provided by Stanley Myron Handelman who did prove to be "unbelievable".

Saturday night ran smoothly because of the efforts of the two Prom Committee Co-Chairmen, Lee Schofield and Herb Holmes. Their hard work and good planning made the evening the success it was.

At the dinner-dance Jenifer Emley was crowned queen and the queen's court consisted of Linda Orabone, Eileen Rosen, Marsha Lemerise, and Sue Wallach.

THE CLASS OF 1970 PRESENTS

"Gone Are The Days" written and directed by Vincent Ventola was one of the most enjoyable and successful shows ever performed at Emerson College. The show was a musical revue which combined the elements of the Old South, Vaudeville and Burlesque. It provided for the audience "a sincere picture of the past decades of American entertainment." You must remember Honey Angell as Charlotte, Sharon Kates as Little Nell, Ken Lee as John Paul, Andrea Martin as Mother Oak, and Rick Sosney as Mr. Mississippi Jr. The Class of 1970 will never forget "Gone Are The Days."

Sophomore year the Class of 1970 presented another show, again written and directed by Vincent Ventola entitled "an evening of theatre . . . for all the seasons of the mind". It was a show that demanded some thought from its audience . . . it was a show that was unique, it was a show in which hats were representative of characters, it was a show "for all the seasons of the mind" . . .

"take a hat and wear it and when the mind mist cleared he saw for the first time color but it was beyond him for he could comprehend only black and white take a hat and see and he saw them wearing hats yet his head remained bare naked and unaware of the coming seasons. . . ."

On October 15, 1969 Emersonians joined together with thousands of others in the peace movement to observe the moratorium against the war in Viet Nam. After hearing Doctors John Noles and Thomas Durant at Fisher Auditorium and debates held by Emerson faculty members at the Union, hundreds of Emersonians marched along to the Boston Common where they joined over 100,000 Bostonians for peace.

GIVE BLOOD FOR PEACE NOT WAR

EMERSON COLLEGE

On October 29, 30, and 31, Emersonians traveled en masse by buses to Massachusetts General Hospital to donate blood for peace. This was an extension of Emerson's plea for peace which had its birth on October 15, 1969.

PPRECIATION

You have helped us through our problems for four years. You have given and asked for nothing in return. Most important, you have cared and for that, we the Class of 1970 thank you.

"I . . . I enjoy closing my eyes and seeing only what I want to see. I am then, what I want to be . . . not what I really am . . . or what people think I really am. I do it . . . I do it because it is the way I have chosen to live . . . to pretend to live, go through the motions of doing . . . not being . . ."

Underclassmen

SITTING: A. Herslow, Z. Sheinberg, B. Pieper, A. Parker, D. Archer, S. Stone, G. Ritchie, J. Chafitz, M. Amenta, F. Schultz, L. Wachtenheim, I. Goldstone. FIRST ROW: G. Young, M. Sullivan, D. Disbrow, D. Woolfson, treasurer; C. Zukroff, president; B. Behan, vice-president; B. Haberman, secretary; W. Weinreb, M. Hoodkiss, J. Hyman. SECOND ROW: M. Romano, J. Cover, R.

Houle, M. Downs, G. Braunstein, D. Bertelli, B. Carey, J. Caputa, R. Deamer, R. Finegold, R. Benak, H. Landman, M. Halpern. THIRD ROW: A. Jacobs, D. Kaufman, D. Brookins, J. Sargent, L. Saltzman, P. Domant, D. Albraktson, S. Myer, D. Barnes, B. Noonan, R. Foley, D. Alexander.

The Class of 1971 entered Emerson this fall close to three hundred strong. Returning as its President was Carl Zukroff; the new executive council of the class was composed of Bruce Behan, vice president, Barbara Haberman, secretary, and Dave Woolfson, treasurer. Two members of the class found themselves in the seats of SGA secretary and treasurer . . . namely Doris Ludwig and Barry Pieper, respectively.

Amongst its activities this year, the Class of 1971 re-instituted a successful showing of its "acclaimed" Hazing Movie. With a variety of talent available for the annual Junior Vaudeville Show, chairman Sid Meyer plunged ahead with much vigor. To cap off the year, the Junior Prom, under the guidance of Bruce Behan and his committee, was held at the Boston 1800 Club, meeting with much satisfaction.

The Class of 1971 looks forward with anxious anticipation to being Emerson's next Senior Class. A special debt of gratitude, by the way, is to be paid to Dr. John Zacharis, who happily completed his third year as the Class Advisor.

CLASS OF '72

FIRST ROW: C. Kelly, S. Butler, D. Souza, F. Feldman, vice-president; J. Brodeur, secretary; M. Yudin, president; B. Pronovost, treasurer; D. Greengross, J. Ranz, S. Goldberg. SECOND ROW: D. Marlowe, B. C. Brown, B. Hiltzik, J. Costa, S. Lust, O. Strandquist, D. Kasabian, A. Raichelle, D. Shelby, T. Cannon, P. Bowe, M. Blakeslee. THIRD ROW: P. Reinhard, D. Sandler, G. Margolis, B. Ross, L. Lowe, T. Crabtree, L. Kornblau, C. Bukowski, R. Parets, M. Barbit, J. Cohen.

It all started on September 13th. The Freshmen met the Sophomores at the Governor's House. Hazing had begun. This was of course the first event sponsored by the class of '72. Before each vacation we put up signs of "Peace" and "Love", and right before Christmas vacation after the Hazing Movie was shown, in a heavy rain, many Sophomores put up and decorated a Christmas Tree which stands in front of 126 Beacon Street.

The biggest event for the year for all of Emerson College will be Winter Weekend. There will be a dance Friday, a concert Saturday—which will be followed by a party at the top of the Prudential.

"Up the Down Staircase" is the Sophomore Production. We are also going to do a series of service projects such as debates and lectures. It has been quite an excellent year for the Class of 1972.

CLASS OF '73

SITTING: S. Corti, K. Kutscher, R. Stagl, R. Cohen, M. Nemeroff, T. Greenberg. FIRST ROW: P. Sussen, A. Rennolds, D. Zwanziger, M. Maddock, treasurer; J. Dunne, vice-president; A. Morgenstern, secretary; C. Millard, president; J. Guterman, J. Oliver, D. Gibson. SECOND ROW: J. Ofgang, B. Peabody Jr., D. Sheppard, B. Fisher, T. Koldys, M. Simpson, A. Cohen, L. Fital, S. Dennis, A. Roberts, T. Ryder. THIRD ROW: S. Perkins, B. Dillane, J. Buczynski, J. Grose, D. Firmender, F. Custin, M. Harnes, D. Flynn, P. Bunetta, R. Koehler, S. Feder.

Being a Freshman at Emerson is one new experience after another. Hazing hit us unexpectedly. It was like being thrown into a cold shower immediately after waking up in the morning. As Freshmen we are all waking up to a new way of life; a life where you are basically your own master; a life where you make yourself what you want to be; an awakening to reality where you have to do things for yourself. It is a time when you have to shape and govern yourself into a person.

There are things that have to be done, and things that you will want to do. Some of these goals are individual, but most of them are as a Class. Hazing started us on the way to becoming a cohesive, working group. We must apply the abilities of this group to make the Class a success. The Freshmen Show will be a measurement of how well the Class of 1973 can work together. It will illustrate our potential. '73 will always be!

Activities

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

SITTING: J. Gilgun, president, Student Government Association; D. Ludwig, secretary, Student Government Association; B. Pieper, treasurer, Student Government Association. STANDING: C. Zukroff, Junior Class president; C. Millard, Freshman Class president;

M. Yudin, Sophomore Class president; B. Kelman, Senior Class president. MISSING: L. Schofield, vice-president, Student Government Association.

The Student Government Association serves as the voice of the Student Body. It consists of the Representative Assembly and the All College Assembly. Nine members are elected from each class to serve in the Representative Assembly, and all remaining students are members of the All College Assembly.

The Representative Assembly meets on the first and third Mondays of each month, and the All College Assembly on the second and fourth Thursdays.

The President is the presiding officer of the All College Assembly, and the Vice President presides over the Representative Assembly. Any motion passed in either branch must also pass in the other branch before it is finalized.

REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY

FIRST ROW: T. Ryder, M. Hoodkiss, N. Sugarman, E. Werner, M. Greenberg, R. Steinberg, M. Kelman, B. Fisher. SECOND ROW: E. Schreiber, R. Goldsmith, B. Kelman, R. Benak, D. Campanella, R. Cohen. THIRD ROW: T. Cannon, B. Errigo, M. Romano, F. Austin, M. Werboff, B. Russell, D. Kasabian.

The Representative Assembly of the Student Government Association is comprised of 36 members—9 elected from each class. These representatives work on ten standing committees dealing with all aspects of life at Emerson—from the food to the finances. The Representative Assembly, presided over by the Vice President of the S.G.A., also serves as a sort of "Senate"; in order for any motion to be put into effect it must pass both branches of the S.G.A.—the All College Assembly and the Representative Assembly.

GOLD KEY HONOR SOCIETY

FIRST ROW: B. Pronovost, L. Kozinn, G. Grossman, parliamentarian; G. A. Wolman, secretary; A. Farnum, vice speaker; M. Greenberg, speaker; J. Rankin, treasurer; M. Hoodkiss, election chairman; S. Long, L. Slavetsky. SECOND ROW: M. Auerbach, M. Kaufman, M. Kanoff, L. Orabone, B. Safire, R. Finegold, R.

Houle, D. Ludwig, G. Metzker, J. Cover, J. Brodeur, S. Monte, T. Rudkin. THIRD ROW: R. Wexler, B. Reed, C. Zukroff, B. Cutler, R. Pimes, M. Halpern, O. Strandquist, B. Carey, R. Steinberg, P. Sullivan, M. Kelman, B. Stein.

Gold Key is Emerson's honor society. It was founded for the purpose of rendering service to the College. Students who have maintained a high academic average and who have shown sincere interest in school affairs and extra-curricular activities are eligible for membership. Only 3% of the student population are actually chosen for membership.

Gold Key members offer assistance during various formal College functions. These include Freshmen Orientation, Founder's Day Weekend, Alumni Weekend, Parents Weekend, and Commencement.

Chafitz, P. Goldstein, A. Alpert, C. Cominos, B. C. Brown, L. Samuel.

This year saw an entirely new Berkeley Beacon. The format, content, and tone of the paper was different than any other year. There were reviews of books, the theatre, cinema, and dance; interesting pictorial essays; poetry; and well-rounded coverage of the school news—a handsomer paper by far!

SCRIBE

FIRST ROW: P. Barnes, art editor; J. Davis, editor-in-chief; M. Greenwald. SECOND ROW: M. Fritz, A. Kiley, M. Auerbach, secretary-treasurer; C. Fortunato, R. Balter. MISSING: T. Lux, poetry editor.

Scribe, Emerson's literary magazine, has grown immensely richer and thicker in the last two years. Completing his second year as Editor, Jeffrey Davis is the first editor to put out a seventy page bound edition of the magazine.

The prose and poetry composing the magazine have reached a newer and greater depth of literary style and ability. It is no wonder that Scribe is Emerson's most popular publication of the year.

PERSPECTUS MAGAZINE

L. Roach, editor-in-chief; C. Bickford, assistant production manager; K. Winslow, assistant production manager.

FORENSICS

J. Niles, S. Meyers, vice-president, treasurer; R. Cohen. MISSING: J. Shevlin, president.

The Forensic Society is the most successful and most competitive organization at Emerson College. Their achievements are nationally renowned. The Emerson College Debating Team has captured many a trophy, and as far as we can see, it will continue to do so. This is one tradition that never seems to be broken.

E.B.O.N.I.

EBONI

EBONI, Emerson's Black Organization with Natural Interests formed in the Spring of 1968, is the first organization on Emerson's campus to which Black students can relate and work together with the goal of making Emerson more relevant to its Black constituents.

E.B.O.N.I. SPEAKS

EBONI, Emerson's Black Organization with Natural Interests, is designed to promote unity and communication among the Black students here at Emerson. Its goal is to encourage the Black student to be always aware of who and what he is, and to use this knowledge in his everyday life. It is an organization created through pride and sustained through respect. The desire for new ideas, new methods, and new approaches to reach the Black youth of today made Spring 1969 a time of excitement, contemplation, and introspection. Eboni presented its TEN DEMANDS.

- 1 The incoming Freshmen class of Emerson include no less than 30 Black students.
- 2 Emerson College provide to five of these Black students full fellowships, and to another five partial fellowships, totalling ten fellowships for the '69-70.
- 3 Workshops are to be made available by each department for students requiring additional assistance.
- 4 The College hire one Black male guidance counselor.
- 5 The College hire one fulltime Black recruiter to work in conjunction with the admissions office.
- 6 Two Black students and the Black recruiter sit on the admission review committee.
- 7 The Baccalaureate degree requirements to include for every student at Emerson at least one course dealing with Black History or Culture, and that such courses be included in the curriculum.
- 8 The speech course Black Rhetoric, to be made an option for Black students towards the fulfillment of speech requirements replacing either Oral Interpretation or Argumentation.
- 9 The following dates: January 15—Birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and May 19—Birthday of Malcolm X, to be observed as school holidays by all students.
- 10 The school menu for dormitory residents provide "soul food" twice a month. The menu suggestions to be provided by Eboni.

INTER-FAITH COUNCIL

SITTING: P. Berry, secretary-treasurer; L. Kornblau, president. STANDING: B. Pead, vice-president.

The Inter-Faith Council coordinates all of the activities of the three religious organizations here at Emerson. It was created to establish a better understanding among the different religious organizations, and discusses as a group any problems or questions that arise.

EMERSON CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

SITTING: M. Romano, B. Noonan, J. Gilgun, R. Mello, A. Roberts. FIRST ROW: P. Bowe, P. Sullivan, vice-president; P. Berry, president; M. Downs, secretary-treasurer; A. Sullivan. SECOND

ROW: B. Carey, C. Kelley, M. Sheridan, L. Orabone, J. Brodeur, J. Dunne, D. Walcovy.

The goal of the Emerson Catholic Community is to keep Roman Catholic students active, involved, and interested in their religion. Their meetings involve deep discussions concerning how Christian love can be a vital part of every activity. The Word of God is not only a Sunday affair.

HILLEL

FIRST ROW: C. Rosenfeld, vice-president; L. Kornblau, president; L. Samuel. SECOND ROW: M. Casso, A. Alpert, E. Braverman, P. Goldstein. MISSING: D. Hirsh, secretary; M. Levenson.

The Emerson College Hillel Group functions in association with the Hillel Foundation of Boston University. Its goals are the pursuit and understanding of the ideals of Jewish Culture and Tradition among all people.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

FIRST ROW: A. Sward, A. Farnum, S. Long. SECOND ROW: B. Pead, president;
C. Bures, B. Reid, K. Winslow.

The Student Christian Association, the Protestant Organization of the Emerson Community, finds its primary function as a meeting place of ideas, both religiously and socially relevant. An integral part of the S.C.A. philosophy is the solidarity of its members with those of Newman, Appostate and Hillel, in the interest of ecumenicism. While the latitude of personal beliefs is wide, the Student Christian Association encourages individual thought and communication in both secular and religious areas of life.

ASSOCIATE AID TO SPEECH THERAPY

FIRST ROW: M. Hoodkiss, M. Lemense. SECOND ROW: D. Ludwig, S. Long, A. Farnum, D. Disbrow, E. Werner.

Associate Aid to Speech Therapy is an organization dedicated to the service of the Robbins Speech and Hearing Center. After graduation, many of its members go on to become members of its parent organization, Aid to Speech Therapy.

ORAL INTERPRETATION SOCIETY

FIRST ROW: M. Gross, recording secretary; R. Valente, vice-president; B. Carey, L. Samuel. SECOND ROW: A. Sullivan, T. Ryder, J. Gilgun, J. Goodman, P. Bowe, corresponding secretary. MISSING: J. Ross, president; J. Hyman, treasurer.

The Oral Interpretation Society was founded in the Spring of 1969. Oral Interpretation is one of the precepts upon which Emerson College was founded. This form of speech performance is what makes Emerson unique.

Individual members of the Society have entered many different contests and festivals throughout the United States. We are very proud and honored to say that they have been the recipients of many trophies and awards.

The Oral Interpretation Society sponsors all Southwick performances here at Emerson.

SPEECH CHOIR

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Mode, mascot; J. Sonion, publicity chairman; P. Bowe, treasurer; C. Bures, vice-president; A. Farnum, president; S. Cohen, secretary; D. Neigher, co-director; K. Mather. SECOND ROW: K. Benjamin, C. Bova, D. Zwanziger, J. Riggs, S. Goldberg, M. Cicerone, S. Long. THIRD ROW: J. Niles, J. Grose, B. Reid, T. Koldys, R. Mello.

The purpose of the Emerson College Speech Choir is to achieve a vocal harmony through the blending of voices—not singing voices, but speaking voices. This is accomplished by the division of poetry and prose into vocal parts, and through the Speech Choir's oral interpretation of these forms of literature.

The Speech Choir performs both at Emerson College's winter and spring convocations, and at high schools and private clubs in Massachusetts. The Speech Choir has also performed at the Martin Luther King School for elementary school children, and has aided WBZ-TV in one of its productions.

CHORUS

FIRST ROW: K. Hultgren, R. Foley, vice-president; J. McSorley, treasurer; R. Pettitt, director; L. Orabone, president; K. Holtvedt, secretary; S. Orford, librarian; M. Romano, vice-president; J. Dunne. SECOND ROW: T. Ryder, L. Jainchill, H. Copenhagen, M.

B. Leidman, J. Guterman, K. Benjamin, B. Case, B. Peabody, Jr., J. Phillips. THIRD ROW: K. Ullman, A. Sandler, J. Riggs, P. Saavedra, D. DeCormier, D. Zwanziger, N. Kalmes, A. Rennold.

Under the professional direction of Mr. Robert Pettitt, the Emerson College Singing Chorus has completed another fine musical season.

This performing organization has functioned in the traditional convocations, monthly chapels, and Founder's Day. The annual Fall, Christmas, and Spring Concerts highlight the musical events of the year, culminating with participation in the graduation ceremony.

For the past few years, the Chorus has been invited to celebrate the Christmas Holidays as performing guests at the Prudential Center.

The group also made several video-tape recordings for the patients of local hospitals.

M.S.E.A.

M.S.E.A. is a student organization designed to help and guide students who plan to pursue a career in the field of teaching.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS SOCIETY

FIRST ROW: D. Coburn, president; M. Hoodkiss, secretary; M. Romano, vice-president. SECOND ROW: S. Meyers, treasurer; C. Cominos. MISSING: J. Stelefson, vice-president; G. Ursul, advisor.

The International Relations Society serves Emerson College by bringing prominent and controversial speakers from the United States and Abroad into our midst. Their aim is to involve the student in today's world affairs, and to encourage participation in the ever changing world of tomorrow. This year the Society will again partake in the United Nations Model Assembly in New York City.

SOCIAL SERVICE

FIRST ROW: S. Shure, M. Lemerise, C. Munster, treasurer; B. Cutler, D. Disbrow, G. Young, president; D. Woolfson. SECOND ROW: M. Hoodkiss, A. Morganstern, vice-president; M. Romano, L. Greenberg, secretary.

The Social Service Committee is Emerson's volunteer tutoring organization. Its members contribute one afternoon a week to help those requiring academic assistance. In many cases, all that's needed is a little "extra" attention. Emerson students are more than willing to contribute this tiny amount. They have learned that helping others has provided more than personal satisfaction. It helps them to understand themselves and the world around them just a little bit better.

SAILING CLUB

FIRST ROW: A. Sullivan, D. Walcovy, B. Carey, P. Reinhard, treasurer; S. Long, vice commodore; M. Messinger, commodore; R. Earley, advisor; Mrs. Mode, mascot. SECOND ROW: R. Deamer, D. Sheppard, R. Benak, M. Lemerise, D. Disbrow, T. Rudkin, J.

McSorley, B. Peabody Jr., M. Werboff. THIRD ROW: B. Crozer, L. Roach, J. Gilgun, D. Firmender, R. Foley, J. Reed, T. Cannon, D. Gibson.

The Sailing Club is one of the largest and most popular organizations here at Emerson. The promotion and encouragement of competitive and recreational sailing are its main goals. Two fiberglass Fins, six checkmate sloops, and a Boston Whaler comprise the "fleet". Sailing, racing, and instruction are available to all members of the organization.

SITTING R. Deamer, J. Anatra, J. Ofgang, R. Mello. FIRST ROW: J. Brodeur, E. Madej, D. Kaufman, music director; H. Lapidés, production director; B. Korkin, station manager; A. Carrus, sales-promotion director; H. Landman, traffic director; B. Edgerton, assistant engineer; B. O'Brien, D. Gibson. SECOND

ROW: S. Dennis, A. Raichelle, M. Simpson, J. Conk, G. Braunstein, D. Kasabian, C. Millard, T. Cannon, T. Koldys, E. Symkus. THIRD ROW: B. Rosenthal, D. Firmender, J. Buczynski, J. Cohen, B. Pronovost, L. Saltzman, C. Bukolski, B. Ross, P. Levine, M. Barbit, B. Dillane, L. Fiftal.

The "voice" of Emerson, WECB, is a closed circuited radio station which entertains the student body. It is manned and operated by the students most interested in the field of Mass Communications. The 6 & 40 Survey provides the top Rock Sounds and all News headlines throughout the day.

WERS-FM

FIRST ROW: A. Nelson, D. Alexander, B. O'Brien, J. Mellgren, D. Tanney, D. Campanella, D. Walcovy, J. Goodman.
SECOND ROW: J. Brodeur, J. Luck, J. Smith, M. Werboff, assistant news director; M. Messinger, news director; B. Reed, station manager; W. Merryman, program director; L. Kimball, R. Goldsmith, A. Sinton. THIRD ROW: R. Houle, A. Raichelle, R. Silva, C. Zukroff, D. Buck, A. Carrus, J. Conk, B. Korkin, J. Ranz, C. Phillips, advisor. FOURTH ROW: B. Rosenthal, R. Foley, R. Dome, J. Richards, B. Reid, C. Bures, P. Levine, W. Pead, M. Mularczyk, J. Cohen, L. Kornblau.

WERS is the 18,000 watt FM radio station of Emerson College. It is a non-commercial station that is staffed and operated mostly by Emerson broadcast majors.

For the 1969-70 season, WERS altered its format to introduce a New, Contemporary Sound to Boston. A new program called Collage revolved principally around fresh music sounds. Parts of the program were devoted to discussions and interviews of contemporary and relevant attractions of today.

Repertoire, the program of classical music heard evenings, was expanded to include interviews with musicians, concert guides, live concerts, and Listener's Choice. The WERS award winning news department continued to provide listeners with regularly scheduled reports of national and local events, along with sports, stock reports, and the weather.

The New, Creative Sound of WERS-FM gives Emerson broadcasting majors an ideal opportunity to broaden their scope in the field of creative radio programming.

WERS-TV

supervisor; M. Downs, D. Tanney, L. Townes, G. Quenzel, advisor. THIRD ROW: J. Conk, D. Campanella, assistant film director; B. Reid, C. Bures, L. Shaw, J. Rankin, D. Woolfson.

"Student Experience First"—This is the slogan of Emerson's closed circuited television station WERS-TV. Broadcasting majors and other talented and interested students can get a chance to participate and practice in studio operations. They also partake in directing and producing their own shows while trying to create new and interesting television techniques.

Each student in the TV Practicum class is required to produce a "masterpiece". These masterpieces as well as other programs, news to variety, are all a part of the programming schedule each year.

Sororities
and Fraternities

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

J. Shevlin, M. Werboff, M. Messinger, president; C. Munster, vice-president; V. DeFeo.

The responsibility of the Inter Fraternity Council is to provide good communication among the four fraternities here at Emerson. Each fraternity President and a special representative from each fraternity compose the Council. The regulation of pledge programs and the coordination of inter fraternity sport competitions and social functions are all activities of IFC.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

SITTING: M. Fleck, M. Greenberg, R. Valenti. STANDING: M. Sherdan, J. Schwartz, B. Carey, K. Webster, G. Wolman.

The responsibility of the Pan Hellenic Council is to serve the best interests of the College and the Sororities at all times. It is composed of the Presidents and special representatives of each of the three sororities. The Council supervises and coordinates all rules for rushing and all other inter sorority activities. The Pan Hellenic Council displays and conveys the ideals of sisterhood here at Emerson.

ALPHA PI THETA

FIRST ROW: J. Heyman, M. Romano, corresponding secretary; K. Rosenbaum, treasurer; D. Ludwig, Theta Queen; C. Munster, president; D. Woolfson, vice-president; P. Sullivan, recording secretary; C. Zukroff. SECOND ROW: M. Sullivan,

B. Freedman, J. Conk, D. Marlowe, M. Yudin, D. Campanella, B. Rosenthal, M. Kelman, A. Shaio, D. Tanney. THIRD ROW: J. Shevlin, S. Shure, J. Honig, B. Pronovost, S. Myer, H. Holmes, B. Pieper, J. Caputa.

Alpha Pi Theta, the fraternal organization for brotherhood and social involvement, is noted for producing wholesome brotherhood and a fun-filled social atmosphere among many outstanding Emerson students.

Founded in 1946, Theta draws its brothers from a diversified background. Each brother rates potential prominence in his chosen profession and brings honor to it as well as to himself.

A Gold Brick, a Green Blazer, a Straw Hat, and the unconquerable "Go Green" spirit will always remain in the hearts of the brothers of Alpha Pi Theta.

C. Jordan, J. Arthur, J. Melton.

Alpha Kappa Alpha is the first Black Sorority established in the United States. The Epsilon Chapter, established in 1913, has been successful in attaining the ideals of "service to all mankind" by establishing and implementing many programs. These include job opportunity and employment for youth, scholarships, training undergraduates for leadership, voter education, and first class citizenship. They are certainly an asset to the community.

FIRST ROW: D. Weston, A. Goodwin, president; D. Ievins, vice-president. SECOND ROW: T. Gendron, K. Sinhart, secretary-treasurer; C. Gray. MISSING: P. Yenofsky, D. Brookins, R. Laver.

LAMBDA PSI PI

Lambda Psi Pi is Emerson's newest fraternity. Founded in the 1968-69 academic year, Lambda exemplifies the strength and loyalty bonded in the ideals of brotherhood.

Phi Alpha Tau, the nation's oldest communicative arts fraternity was founded at Emerson in 1902. This past year the fraternity has labelled its goal as the "Year of Brotherhood", along with promoting the ideals and goals of Emerson College and furthering the communicative arts, bringing to the National Fraternity dignity and honor.

The year began with the first big event at Emerson, Showcase '73. This annual event provides the incoming freshmen class the opportunity to display their talents to the Emerson Family. Tau's activities throughout the year include the Tau Carol Sing, the Tau Blast, the Tau Press Conference, our weekly outings to the Norfolk Settlement House, and many other events.

The most important event to the Brothers and the fraternity is the Joseph E. Connor Memorial Award. The presentation always proves to be one of the highlights of the school year.

PHI MU GAMMA

FIRST ROW: B. Peak, J. Schwartz, vice-president; M. Fleck, president; H. Stuart, treasurer; S. Goldberg, recording secretary. SECOND ROW: D. Janson, R. Houle, K. Webster, P. Browne.

Phi Mu Gamma is an international, social, service, speech and fine arts professional sorority, Emerson College having the Alpha Chapter. Its aim is "to instill loyalty among its members and to work on mental as well as artistic development". The membership is proud of quality rather than quantity.

One of Phi Mu Gamma's main activities is the sponsorship of the Faculty Talent Show which gives the Emerson Family the opportunity to see the staff of the College in a real sense and also provides enjoyment for all.

Aside from this, there are many things that Phi Mu Gamma does within her own ranks for and with the sisters, not only for themselves but also for others. They have theatre parties, a senior supper, spring picnic and sponsor a Christmas party for a local orphanage. This year they also had an open house following the Phi Alpha Tau Showcase '73, not only to welcome the freshmen into the ranks of Emerson, but also to welcome back the entire student body. An open coffee hour was also given for the faculty.

RHO DELTA OMEGA

FIRST ROW: P. Steiner, M. Connor, vice-president; D. Berman, president; D. DeFeo. SECOND ROW: J. Glasserow, C. Comminos, treasurer; S. Lust, D. Maturi, recording secretary;

OND ROW: H. Copenhagen, B. Stein, K. Starzyk, M. Sheridan, J. Cover, P. Bowe. MISSING: S. Turco.

Zeta Phi Eta is the National Professional Speech Arts and Sciences Fraternity for Women. Emerson has the Alpha Chapter, organized in 1908.

The Zetas work to join together women committed to maintaining higher standards in speech and speech sciences—speech education, theatre, radio, motion pictures, television, interpretation, public address, speech correction and communications.

We are mostly a service fraternity planning activities for the College and the Community such as Christmas parties for the underprivileged children, bake sales, and the Zeta Happening.

ALPHA EPSILON RHO

FIRST ROW: R. Houle, corresponding secretary; P. Swanson, president; B. Reed. SECOND ROW: A. Jacobs, B. Hillman, W. Pead, J. Rankin. MISSING: C. Cutler, vice-president; H. Holmes, G. Grossman.

Alpha Epsilon Rho, the national honorary broadcasting fraternity, has chapters in thirty-five colleges and universities that offer majors in the field of broadcasting. The fraternity helps to prepare its members for future roles as responsible broadcasters by fostering professionalism and leadership in the broadcasting areas while emphasizing superior scholarship and creative participation. The letters A, E, and R stand for Always Excellent Radio.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

SIGMA ALPHA ETA

FIRST ROW: M. Halpern, M. Fleck, secretary; P. Sullivan, vice-president; A. Farnum, president; L. Kozinn, treasurer, N. Sugarman. SECOND ROW: T. Rudkin, G. A. Wolman, N.

Fisher, J. Cover, S. Cohen, G. Metzker, H. Straka, T. Sherman, C. Balzano.

Sigma Alpha Eta is the National Speech and Hearing Honorary Fraternity created to provide all students who are interested in Speech Pathology and Audiology with more extensive social and professional experiences. It also tries to foster a spirit of unity by coordinating the interests and efforts of persons with a common goal by providing situations in which students and faculty may work together as a team to advance the profession as a whole.

A fine example of this is the birth at the end of last year of an organization known as SPDR, the Speech Professionals with Democratic Responsibility. This is a group organized at Emerson to give the speech pathologist more insight into the profession by getting out and working with people to help them and to help the student also discover himself. Sigma is proud to say that SPDR is now a working organization in its own right.

Sports

One man who lives by earning the right to win
One man who cared for every athlete he trained as if they were his sons
One man in which loyalty, courage and bravery stemmed to all
One man whom all could trust
One man whom all would respect
One man who knows the true meaning of education
One man the two of us will never forget
One man—MR. JAMES PECKHAM.

RACING TEAM

HOCKEY

Emerson College's Hockey Team entered its fourth year of existence in splendid tradition. Only in its second year on the varsity level, Emerson battled Gordon College, Curry College and many others on their way to an 8-2 record, thus far with three games left.

Peter O'Brien—The senior captain of the hockey team who came down here from Canada and proved to us that Canadians can really skate. Peter did more than skate though. He led the team in scoring, was the johnny on the spot when the going got rough and provided the inspirational leadership that made this year's hockey team the most successful in the school's history.

Dick Pleasants—A senior who came back from suffering a broken leg to do a very comparable job as a very tough defenseman.

Dick Norcross—A tremendous goalie. Words aren't adequate to describe some of the impossible saves that he made while in the nets. Undoubtedly the best goalie that this school has ever seen.

Andy Cerrone—A transfer student who helped protect our net while playing rugged defense. Andy was also a big man for Emerson on the power play.

Gary Walsh—A newcomer who really helped the team with his play and his enthusiasm.

Ted Gendren—A boy who didn't see a lot of action but his moral support was greatly felt by his teammates.

Pete Gilmore—Instrumental in the many lopsided victories of the hockey team.

Fred Faust—One of the team's leading scorers. Fred was a tiger on defense and a workhorse on offense.

Blair Richardson—Player-Coach of the hockey team who deserves much credit for his guidance and performance both on the ice and off.

WRESTLING

Captain, Wrestling Team—Michael Connor

167 Cyrus Comminos
177 Steve Muroviec
191 Scott Breuninger
Heavyweight Dave Maturi

A team that has a very very tough schedule, wrestling, MIT, Holy Cross, Lowell Tech, Lowell State, Boston State and Plymouth, Hartford and Rhode Island Colleges. The team is young and Coach Peckham should be smiling to see all the talent that he will have back next year. Only two wrestlers are graduating this year. With Mr. Peckham's expert guidance our New England Championship Greco-Roman team should have some more good years ahead of them.

Emerson College Basketball attained a new "high" this past season. They managed to win more games than the Lion teams of the three previous seasons combined. Highlights of the year were:

1. Captain Lew Peterson contributing another phenomenal scoring season.
2. Bill Hazelwood and Peter Dierks providing the rebounding strength needed to win ball games.
3. Eddie "the people's choice" Cohen receiving a standing ovation for his unprecedented performance against Curry College.
4. Discovery to the fact that the referee that the fans consistently booed was chosen as Emerson's new baseball coach.
5. Rich Carton showing expert ball handling ability.
6. Craig De Bona, Marty Grudzinski, Phil Levine, Don Sandler and Joel Zorn all added to a well rounded ball club.

With the big guns returning, Coach Bradley can look forward to a super season next year.

Good luck to Mr. Jim Marshall, the new baseball coach of the Emerson ball club. This year's squad has one returning ballplayer from last year's team. It can be considered a rebuilding year with the potential of a winning season. Emerson has the baseball talent; let's hope the talent decides to play.

Emerson's cross-country season was highlighted by Rick Barnes' dramatic first place finish, which is Emerson's only such finish in its short history of cross-country racing. The Emerson trackmen finished with an impressive season in one of the school's most grueling sports. Hats off goes to the five man team who complimented Emerson College by upholding our reputation as a hard fighting and determined athletic team.

Theatre

Boston—1970. the most active theatre town in the east. with its professional companies, workshops and schools. and emerson. with its major productions, workshops and now two student organizations making emerson the most active theatre company in boston. its work will be judged by the professional academia, the uninvolved reviewer, and ultimately the emerson audience itself. this section is dedicated to our influence on the boston theatre scene.

BABA

the Emerson College Strolling Players

130 Beacon St. Boston.

This year the Strolling Players of the Theatre Education Department once again proved that touring a children's show is a lot of work, a lot of fun, and a lot of good experience. Adapting sets and blocking in Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves to fit such widely diverse stages as the tiny old-fashioned box (sans lighting) at Pepperell, to the gigantic fully equipped (Century light board) one at Concord, is probably one of the quickest ways of learning theatre. Hauling sets and costumes every week may not be fun, but it does build muscle and convinces even the most dogmatic of the values of minimal scenery.

For the spring show, David McMahon's script, The Undiscovered King called for full medieval regalia, complete with horses and knights in shining armor. Director Polly Hogan kept the kids fascinated with this story of King Arthur as a young boy. The clever use of puppets, such as Merlin's pet owl, Archimedes, gave a great boost to the show which also featured a hilariously clumsy joust.

Ask any of the actors or technicians and they'll tell you that an audience of children is probably the most demanding they've ever faced. But there must be something good in it, for many of the first-semester company members came back for more second semester as well.

together,
in our blind ignorance
let us hand in hand search for the light of learning and truth . . .

we leave as more complete individuals perhaps with a change of values, perhaps with new thoughts.

we leave with a touch of every emotion with a feeling of sadness, of happiness, of anxiety.

we can look back to all that has passed, but better, we shall look ahead and apply what we have heard of learned or experienced to enrich this world we live in
. . . and for those who still remain, question and search for meanings to all that exists . . . prepare "for all the seasons of the mind".

Really am?
Real am
Why real?"
